NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise."

To gain knowledge of your own body—in sickness and health—send for the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A book of 1008 pages. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

FAMINE, PESTILENCE AND REBELLION.

The steamer Tartar, which arrived at Victoria, B. C, Sunday night, brought advices that the revolution in Central China is becoming a serious menace to that country. A junction between the rebels of Hunan and Kwang Tung is threatened, with the result that a formidable rebellion will follow. Sun Yat-sen, the Kwang Tung rebel leader, who escaped from the Chinese Legation in London some years ago in a sensational manner, is living in Tokio, Japan, and is organizing the revolution which he says in an interview is expected to achieve the fall of the present Manchu dynasty within three years.

The rebels hold all the mountain fastnesses on the borders of Hunan and Kiangsi, and all attempts of the imperial troops to dislodge them have failed. In consequence of the rebellion Chinese authorities at Shanghai are adopting vigorous measures to check the importation of arms and ammunition. Agents of the revolutionists have been sent to the United States and Europe to purchase war material, says a dispatch to the Asahi of Tokio, and collusion has been found to exist between agents of the rebels and the traders to import arms under the guise of goods.

To date 20,000 imperial troops, with cavalry and artillery, have been sent against the rebels, but failed to achieve anything. Advices from foreigners who visited the district say it is doubtful whether the revolution can be suppressed should all the troops at the disposition of the government be sent. The leader of the revolutionists is Nung Chuntai, Siang Tiang, and placards issued by him state that the rebellion is aimed at the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty. Signs of unrest are reported from many places in China.

Despatches to the Achai from Mukden state that an outbreak against the dynasty is extreme in Manchuria, where a battalion of Chinese troops has murdered its officers. At Peking exceptional precautions are being taken, police and palace guards being doubled. Warnings have been sent by Viceroy Chang Chin Tung and Toan Fang that large numbers of secret society men from the Yang Tse Valley are flocking to Peking.

Further advices from the famine district of Central China, received by the steamship Tartar, state that smallpox has broken out in the camps and in consequence officials are breaking them up. The people are numbed by suffering and patiently submit to being driven.

Telegrams to the Jiji Shimpo say upwards of half a million people will die of starvation or disease incidental to the terrible conditions prevailing in the famine districts. Relief measures are stated to be inefficient and the filth amid which the famine-stricken people live is described as shocking. No sanitary measures of any kind were adopted and it was inevitable that a pestilence should follow.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Another Mine Explosion.

An explosion, resulting in the killing of the mine superintendent, D. R. Jones, and 15 miners, occurred yesterday morning at Mine No. 25, of the Davis Coal and Coke Company, at Thomas, W. Va., as stated in the Gazette of that day.

Immediately after the explosion the work of rescue was put into execution. At 8 o'clock last night eight bodies had been removed, all being Italians or Lithuanians. Owing to the fact that all the miners entombed were foreigners and of limited acquaintanceship at Thomas, the company has found it difficult to form an accurate estimate of the total number caught, but it is believed that there are at least seven more, all of whom have likely met the fate of those whose remains have already been removed.

A most distressing accident incident to the work of rescue occurred about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when D. R. Jones, the superintendent of the plant, lost his life while piloting one of the rescue parties. Jones, in his determination to aid the entombed men, seems to have laid aside all thought of personal safety, and was many feet in advance of the air current when the rescuers he was leading discovered his prostrate and unconscious form. He was even then dying, and succumbed soon thereafter.

Struggle Between Lords and Commons.

In a speech at Manchester Eng., yesterday Winston Churchill, parliamentary secretary of the colonial office, referred to the coming campaign against the House of Lords. He said that society was vitiated by many features of wasteful folly and unfairness, none of which was more obvious than the twin evils connected with the House of Lords and the land. The peers had deliberately provoked a constitutional struggle, and the House of Commons, in the heydey of strength and youth, would take up the challenge unhesitatingly. Parliament was meeting war conditions.

It was their business to come to an understanding immediately with these lordly persons and to show without delay that it was the House of Commons and not the House of Lords that would be master.

The end of the conflict must be a general election, but there were many things to do first. They had to pass a couple of good radical budgets. (This shows that the government, if Mr. Churchill was its authorized mouthpiece, does not intend to force the final issue before April, 1908.) They had to educate the people upon the issues, and bring all progressive forces into line against the common enemy. The election would come soon enough for everybody. The battle must be fought out in Parliament.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 5, 1907.

THE New York Socialist Sabbath-School Association, a body of socialists organized last week, opened its first socialist Sabbath-school, where socialism is to be taught every week to children, on Saturday afternoon in the rooms of the New York Socialist Literary Society, on East Broadway. A woman has been placed in charge of the school. The exercises began with the singing of the "Marseillaise." The women subsequently talked of the dignity of labor and said the children had the privilege of attending the first kindergarten class in socialism ever formed. It is proposed to have the lessons graduated according to the intelligence of the pupils, and a primer of socialism will be prepared. Of course, the course of instruction will be all secular. Schools of this kind are to be established all over Greater New York, and maps and charts to illustrate the lessons are in course of preparation. The propagation of socialism is being conducted actively all over the civilized world, and its champions are causing much apprehension. While the party has received a temporary setback in Germany the figures in connection with the late election in that country show that numerically the organization has lost nothing, it merely failed to get control of the Reichstag, as it had hoped to do. The propaganda in this country is going on actively. Speakers are invading every community and disseminating their doctrines. The movement in New York is significant. The purpose of the champions of the movement is to teach children to abhor capital from their infancy. The query, Whither are we drifting? is pertinent.

MOST PEOPLE will be glad to learn that Admiral Dewey has authorized the denial of an interview sent out from Washington in which the Admiral was represented as stating his belief that the American navy could whip the Japanese navy in the case of a war with Japan. In denying that he had authorized the publication of any such sentiments Admiral Dewey said: "It is preposterous to think that I, the Admiral of the Navy, would make the statements attributed to me, and I ask that you deny them with all the emphasis that you can command." Admiral Dewey also says he did not express the opinion that the attitude of some men in high authority over the Japanese situation is nothing less than cowardice. Alleged interviews with public men should, on general principles, be taken with a grain of salt. Many are made out of whole cloth, and there should be some means of holding the perpetrators responsible. As it is they are merely branded as disciples of Ananias and Sapphira, which is no deterrent to some unprincipled attaches of newspapers.

A CORRESPONDENT of a Washington paper writing from Vienna, Va., says: "It is said to be the general belief among those in a position to know that Gov. Swanson will not appoint a successor to Mr. Robert E. Lee, who recently resigned as a member of the House of Delegates, but will allow the office to remain vacant until the regular election next fall." As the Governor has no power to fill vacancies in the Legislature the above will be read with surprise by "those in a position to know."

SENATOR KINNEY, of St. Louis, is preparing a bill to be introduced into the Missouri general assembly placing a poll-tax of 10 per cent. on all unmarried male citizens in the State. The bill will apply to all unmarried male citizens over the age of twenty-five years. And there is a suspicion that some Missouri men would rather pay the fine than marry.

THERE IS evidently a conflict of opinion between the ground hog and Hicks. According to the former winter ended on Saturday, but the latter says: "On the whole, the forecast for February is believed to be the most severe and disagreeable of the winter months." So far Hicks seems to have the inning on the ground hog.

From Washington.

Washington, Feb. 5.

Charles L. Magee, secretary of the American National Red Cross Society, this afternoon received from Dr. Louis L. Klopsch, editor of the Christian Herald, of New York, a check for $25,000, which he had raised through his paper for the benefit of the Chinese famine sufferers. The amount was promptly cabled through the State Department to Consul General Rodgers, at Shanghai, for distribution to the famine stricken districts through the local native and European relief societies. This makes a total of $50,000 in cash that has been received by the Red Cross so far.

Spurred on to renewed activity by a cable dispatch from Consul General Rodgers, at Shanghai, concerning their efforts to afford relief to the 15,000,000 starving natives in the extensive famine district of China, the Red Cross officials today wired to the governors of California and Washington asking for contributions of wheat at once, in order that it may reach Shanghai early in March. Mr. Rodgers, in his dispatch to the State Department today, stated that if wheat for planting for this year's crop is not received in the famine district by March 15, it will be too late. He suggests that, owing to the short time intervening, cash contributions be cabled to him so that he might buy in the Australian markets, from which point it can be shipped to China more quickly and cheaply. The State Department cabled in reply that renewed efforts would be made to rush either the wheat or the money for its purchase to China. Appeals previously made to the governors of the Pacific coast states for wheat, both for food and planting, have brought little result.

"The reports sounded to me like those from Winchesters and six shooters," said Sergeant Israel Harris, formerly of Company D, 25th Infantry, in describing before the Senate military committee today the shooting at Brownsville Texas. His examination was continued from yesterday and occupied the whole of the session of the committee. He was then excused and the committee will tomorrow examine Sergeant Frazier, of the some company, who was the man who called the roll when the company was aroused from bed on the night of the affray. Answering Senator Warren Sergeant Harris said that he was familiar with different kinds of firearms and that the sounds of the shots seemed to him to be from different kinds of guns. He was positive that he heard no Springfield rifle fired and that the sound was more like that from Winchesters or six shooters. In the course of his examination witness spoke of the "unfriendliness" of the people of Texas to colored soldiers and said that he preferred to serve in the north and had announced his intention not to re-enlist if he were to be stationed in Texas. Pressed upon this point he said that he had never had any trouble personally. Witness said that when the battalion left Brownsville the streets were lined with people and at every corner there were men armed with Winchesters and an escort of fifty or more citizens marched with them to the station. Witness positively denied any knowledge of a "conspiracy of silence," as charged, but repeated his statement that he had never heard the affray discussed among the men of his company.

Measures to be adopted to afford financial relief to the county were discussed at today's meeting of the Senate committee on finance. There was nothing definite advanced and the question went over until the next meeting. The bill under consideration was that to increase the number of bills of small denominations through the issuance of gold certificates of $5 and $10.

Certain railroads, seeking to secure valuable coal lands in the Big Horn Basin, in Wyoming, hired cab drivers, barkeepers and barbers living in New York, Amityville, L. I., and certain towns in New Jersey to enter these lands and then to turn them over to the railroad interests, according to officials of the Interior Department. Secretary Hitchcock is reported to have secured confessions from a number of the New Yorkers and Jerseyites. The entire matter has been laid before the Attorney General for prosecution.

It is believed here that the Senate will kill the wide tire bill passed by the House last week.

Mrs. Longworth the President's daughter, who has been ill with grip, is reported to be much improved today.

Mollie L. Blankenbaker has been appointed postmaster at Dunavant, Spotsylvania county, and Blanche Eggborn at Eggbornsville, Culpeper county, Va.

The District of Columbia Commissioners have received the anti-tipping bill in hotels, restaurants, cafes, eating houses, etc., and will shortly make a report thereon.

The President stands firmly by Secretary Hitchcock in the policy of the interior in dealing with the affairs of the five civilized tribes in Indian Territory. He has written to the secretary approving heartily the order withdrawing timber lands from allotment, with the special Senate investigating committee has denounced as clearly illegal.

Unattended, President Roosevelt tramped four miles while the blizzard was raging last night. He went down to the speedway and then up to Georgetown and got all the fresh air he wanted.

Vice President and General Manager Ackert, of the Southern Railway Company, denies that he is connected with the Panama Construction Company, which William J. Oliver and his associates have organized.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

SENATE.

The Senate this afternoon passed a bill providing for two additional circuit judges in the ninth circuit and one additional district judge in the northern district of California.

Mr. Heyburn offered a resolution in the Senate this afternoon calling for the appointment of a committee of five Senators to investigate the reorganization of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company with a view of having Congress repeal its charter. It went to the committee on Pacific railroads.

Mr. Heyburn offered a resolution directing the Secretary of the Interior to issue land patents when all the legal requirements have been followed, and no protest has been filed.

HOUSE.

Before going into the committee of the whole to consider the rivers and harbors appropriation bill the House today agreed to close general debate on that bill at 3:10 o'clock.

Case Not Heard.

The rule issued in January by Judge William M. Atkinson, of the Corporation Court of Winchester, directing Mrs. Alexander M. Baker to show cause why she should not be held in contempt for her failure to appear before the grand jury and testify against Mr. A. Powell Brookes, who was accused of attempting to shoot Mrs. Baker, was not heard in court yesterday, owing to a misunderstanding. When the motion was made in court, Prosecuting Attorney Reardon asked that the rule against Mrs. Baker be made returnable the first Monday in February, but the clerk of the court, through error, cited Mrs. Baker to appear on the third Monday in this month to answer to the contempt charge. Mrs. Baker and her daughter are still out of town.

Marconi will not attempt to open wireless communication with Mars despite the princess D'Antuni's announcement of a spiritualistic message to her asking that such an effort be made. Marconi is in England, but he is away from London.

News of the Day.

A new Santo Domingan treaty, which is expected to prove acceptable to the Senate has been signed.

A dispatch from Boston says that Mrs. Geo. C. Lee, grandmother of Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, lies seriously ill at her home in Chestnut Hill, and the members of her family are greatly alarmed over her condition.

A delegation from Cincinnati, including republicans, in protesting to the President against the proposed appointment of Ralph Tyler, colored, as surveyor of the port of Cincinnati, told him it would ruin the political chances of his son-in-law.

After having thoroughly aroused the little hamlet of Forrestville, Md, the portion of a human arm, which was found nailed to a telegraph pole at that place Sunday afternoon, was proven to be nothing more than a dissected specimen from some medical school.

In the case of Dr. James W. Simpson for the murder of his father in-law, Bartley T. Horner, the prosecution finished at Riverhead, L. I. Mrs. Simpson gave her testimony against her husband. Her voice trembled as she spoke the words that may send Dr. Simpson to the electric chair. In tones scarcely audible she said she loved him, and then gave information against him.

Representatives of the Honduras Lottery Company have assured that government, it is said, that if the impending prosecutions of its officers and stockholders for violation of the lottery laws is abandoned, it will wind up its affairs, go out of business and promise to be good. The government, however, is determined that the prosecutions shall be pushed to their logical and final conclusion in the courts.

Testimony in the trial of Mrs. Jennie May, charged with assault with intent to kill Lucien Conen, who died over a year after the shooting, took a decided turn for the defense in Washington yesterday, when experts testified that in their opinion Mrs. May was at times of unsound mind. Their testimony tended to show that Mrs. May was subject to epileptic seizures, and for some time after such attacks could hardly be considered perfectly sane.

The war talk of the American press has been received in Tokio with great surprise and sincere regret. Several leading men both in and out of the Japanese government concur in the opinion that the United States is the last country with which Japan would go to war. Besides, both nations are unaggressive in their trade rivalries, which seldom lead to war unless territorial acquisition is intended by either rival. Even those inclined to be caustic ridicule the idea of war with the United States. The Japanese press has been silent so far, apparently considering the matter unworthy of comment.

A fire involving losses estimated at from $250,000 to $500 000 occurred yesterday evening in the most dangerous fire section of London—namely, that block of narrow and tortuous streets which is the home of the Manchester trade. The fire destroyed several buildings on Wood street, stocked with silks and other merchandise. The whole city was brilliantly illuminated by the flames, and the towering dome of St. Paul's Cathedral presented a striking spectacle silhouetted against the sky. All the traffic in the neighborhood was stopped. The firemen soon got the flames under control, however.

The Bavarian newspapers publish an edict of the Archbishop of Bamberg to the clergy of his diocese, in which he said that no one could expect any Catholic layman or priest to vote for the anti-clerical social democrats in the second balloting for elections to the Reichstag. The Archbishop of Munich has made a similar statement and the attitude of the two archbishops, which, it is believed was influenced by the Vatican, has elicited the fact that the Bavarian center party has caused it to be known that in the second balloting members of that party should support the social democrats in the districts where second ballots are necessary between social democrats and the candidates of other parties. The stand taken by the Archbishops of Bamberg and Munich has rendered the position of the social democrats more difficult.

THAW'S DEFENSE.

That Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's affair with Stanford White had once made her refuse to marry Harry K. Thaw; that the unwritten law will be stretched to cover an incident previous to the marriage of the artist's model and the young millionaire, and that this knowledge and the supposed taunting and harassing attentions of White to Mr. and Mrs. Thaw will be the defense was the sensational feature of yesterday in the Thaw trial.

Insanity will be the formal and legal defense, but behind this will be not only the "higher" law, but a new and daring application of it by the oratorical Delmas, in that it applies to an event in the life of the beautiful young wife before she was married. Since Thaw shot White on the roof garden, and during all the talk of the unwritten law, it has never developed until now whether the alleged offense was prior or since the wedding. It will be contended that Thaw's brain boiled and bubbled over a subject that White kept keen in Thaw's mind by scowling at and otherwise annoying Thaw and his wife in public until the young Pittsburger was driven insane and shot down the man who, he believed, had ruined his wife. And Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is to go on the stand and tell the whole story, the secret of her life.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate yesterday debated the criminal appeals bill, and amended it so as to allow defendants to be admitted to bail or released on their recognizance pending appeal. Senator Whyte opposed the measure to give the Government the right to appeal in criminal cases. Senator Heyburn continued his speech on the reform of the land laws, and was followed by Senator Newlands, defending the President's policy.

The House debated the Jamestown Exposition appropriation and concurred in the Senate amendment providing a loan of $1,000,000. A joint resolution ordering the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to investigate the charge that navy officers have secured patents on smokeless powder inventions and sold them to manufacturers was passed.

The omnibus lighthouse bill, carrying a total appropriation of $1,598,500 for the lighthouse establishment, and an additional sum of $195,000 for additional lightkeepers' dwellings, was also passed.

Virginia News.

The nomination of S. B. Carney to be postmaster at Norfolk, was sent to the Senate yesterday.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to James H. Houser and Mauddine G. Pritchett, both of Sunlight; James William Kinnier, and Helen Hay Burns, both of Afton; William B. Adams and Mary Blanche Van Sickler, both of Leesburg.

A small riot was started yesterday in Danville, when Charles Harvey, a negro took a seat at a restaurant counter and ordered a meal. He was informed that negroes were not served there, but he replied that he was as good as any white man. A number of white patrons were in the place and made a rush for the negro. They hurled him bodily to the street and were giving him a severe beating, when several policemen rescued him.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Loudoun County Horse and Colt Show Association was held in Leesburg Saturday. Mr. William Corcoran Eustis, of Washington, was elected president in place of Mr. R. N. Harper, resigned. Mr. Westmoreland Davis, first vice president; Mr. H. Harrison Russell, of Washington, second vice president; Mr. Edwin E. Garrett, treasurer, and Mr. S. T. Hickman, secretary. It was decided to continue the exhibition three days this year, instead of two.

The Kappa Alpha Greek Letter fraternity house at the University of Virginia was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning. All the inmates escaped unhurt, except for a few minor injuries. The building was owned by Mrs. Warner Woods and was covered by insurance. Nearby houses were threatened by the fire, but were merely damaged by water. Kappa Alpha fraternity was founded at the Washington and Lee University in 1865, and Lambda Chapter was established at the University of Virginia in 1879.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings in the Court of Appeals yesterday were as follows:

Fraternities Accident Order vs. Armstrong; argued and submitted.

United States Mineral Company vs Camden & Driscoll; partly argued and continued.

Next cases to be called—Pennsylvania Railroad Company et al. vs. Smith, agent; Austin vs. Minor; Town of West Point vs. Bland et al; Howard et al. vs. Landsberg's committee; Woody's administrator vs. Schaff et al., and Security Trust and Life Insurance Company vs. Schaff, being Nos. 46, 48, 50, 52, and 53 on the argument docket.

The Court of Appeals yesterday granted a writ of error and supersedeas in the Southern Railway vs. Viola Daves, which comes from the Circuit Court of Mecklenburg county. This is a damage suit resulting from an accident on a railroad. In the lower court the verdict was for $1,000. Viola Daves is a colored girl who was hurt while playing on the tracks with a companion.

In the case of Jordan vs. Smith, an application for a mandamus to compel the assignment of certain oyster lands in Northampton county, was filed.

Jamestown to Get Loan.

As a result of an action in the House yesterday, the Jamestown Exposition Company will get a loan of $1,000,000 in accordance with the terms of the Senate amendment to the urgent deficiency bill, which provided that the loan should be secured by a lien upon the gross receipts.

The House committee on appropriations reduced the amount to $800,000, and imposed restrictions increasing the security for the loan. The matter came up in the committee of the whole yesterday in the form of a substitute offered by Mr. Littauer, of New York, for the Senate provision. After one of the bitterest fights of the session, led by Representative Maynard, of Virginia, by a vote of 74 to 95, the committee of the whole refused to accept the Littauer substitute. It was also voted to concur in the further amendment of the Senate appropriating $65,000 to dredge a channel connecting deep water in Hampton Roads with the piers constructed in front of the government life-saving service exhibit.

The House confirmed the action of the committee of the whole by a vote of 110 to 85.

Killed by Falling Wall.

Four volunteer firemen, well-to-do young business men and members of prominent families of White Plains, N. Y., were killed by a falling cornice at a $100,000 fire at that place yesterday. Some of the bodies were so badly charred as to be unrecognizable. The cornice of the building had become loosened and fearing it would fall into the crowd around the building, the firemen prepared to pull it down. A ladder was run up at what was believed to be a safe distance, and after a rope had been attached to the loosened cornice the men on the latter began to pull. As the cornice gave way it brought a portion of the wall with it and the ladder and its occupants were swept down in the shower of bricks. The section of cornice was so heavy that it required nearly 100 men to lift it. Extreme care had to be taken lest in moving the debris other injuries might be inflicted upon the men buried underneath.

Suit for Divorce.

Mrs. Minnie Smith, filed suit for partial divorce against her husband, Bennett B. Smith, in Washington yesterday. She asks that the husband be required to contribute toward the support of herself and their two children. The marriage took place in Prince William county, April 19, 1892, and the couple separated eight years ago. Mrs. Smith says her husband makes about $100 a month, and has never contributed to her support or that of their children since the separation.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Blizzard.

New York, Feb. 5.—New York is snowbound today in the grasp of the worst storm of the winter, and the blizzard is still raging. Traffic is practically at a standstill, except on the subway, and some portions of the city are almost cut off from communication. Down the bay a gale is raging.

Driven by a strong northwester the storm settled down on the city late yesterday afternoon. During the night nearly two feet of snow fell. In the narrow canyon-like streets it drifted and piled up until horses and automobiles became stalled.

Accidents and death in numerous cases were the accompanists of the storm. Two workmen were caught in a cave-in of the roof of the New York, New Haven & Hartford round house under tons of snow. They were dug out and hurried to a hospital, where it is feared they will die. All the hospital ambulances were kept busy bringing in patients who had fallen and sustained severe injuries.

Great suffering has been caused in the tenements although the fairly moderate temperature has prevented wholesale deaths. In several instances pedestrians on their way home in the early hours of the morning, exhausted by the struggle against the storm, fell and were almost frozen before found.

An unknown man met death as a result of the storm on a station platform of the Fulton street elevated in Brooklyn. After waiting for an hour on the platform for a train the man fell unconscious in a drift of snow. Miss Sarah Van Duvoldt, the ticket agent, tried in vain to drag the man into the ticket booth, but her strength was unequal to the task. By the time she could summon a policeman the stranger was dead.

Bethlehem, Pa., Feb. 5.—The blizzard has held this section of Pennsylvania in its grip the past eighteen hours. More than a foot of snow has fallen and accompanied by a wind of high velocity, the snow has drifted. Country roads are completely blocked. Milkmen being unable to reach town, today, there is a milk famine here. The trolley lines leading to South Bethlehem, Freemansburg, Kutztown, Allentown, Bittersville,, Nazareth, Easton and Hellertown are also snowed under and dozens of cars, some with passengers, are stalled all along the line. In the country drifts are a dozen feet high, and it will be several days before openings are cut through them. The west-bound trains are hours behind time.

Boston, Feb. 5.—The worst snow storm of the winter is raging throughout New England today. At 10 o'clock this morning snow was heaped a foot on the level. The snow is fine and dry and the high wind is drifting it badly. All suburban trolley lines were tied up this morning and those in the city moved with greatest difficulty. The railroads report that the snow is deep between here and New York. No trains from New York had arrived up to 10 o'clock. The blizzard shows no signs of abating. The weather bureau predicts that it will continue to snow all through New England today and tomorrow.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—Railroads, street cars, telephone and telegraph service for hundreds of miles around Chicago are seriously impeded by the heaviest snow fall of the season. An uninterrupted fall for another day will probably make the blizzard a record breaker. Nearly five hundred fire alarms have caused the city fire department to turn out to all parts of the city, for 24 hours.

The Trial of Dr. Simpson

New York, Feb. 5.—The jury, and not Judge Kelly, will decide the guilt or innocence of Dr. James W. Simpson, the Fifth Avenue dentist, on trial at Riverhead L. I., for the murder of his father-in-law, Bartley T. Horner. When the defense moved that the indictment be quashed, alleging the prosecution had failed to make out a case, Judge Kelly merely ruled "I'll leave it to the jury." Simpson may know his fate before night. Today the defense began presenting its evidence. Attorney Manton expected to conclude by afternoon, which will give time for a verdict unless the jury becomes dead locked. Mrs. Simpson, in her testimony offered the hardest blow given Simpson. She declared Simpson broke the gun with which her father was shot and looked through the barrel to see if it were loaded. The defense contends Dr. Simpson did not know the gun was loaded. Dr. Simpson will probably take the stand to off-set the testimony of his wife. Character witnesses will also testify for him.

Dr. Simpson took the stand this afternoon, after his attorney Martin Manton had outlined the defense to the jury. In his statement the lawyer declared Horner's death was due to "accidental shooting." "I am innocent of any intent to kill," he exclaimed dramatically.

Public School Disclosures.

Chicago, Feb 5.—Disclosures of evil conduct among the boys and girl pupils in the Newberry School on the North Side were added today to those brought to light in the Hyde Park schools. Today's revelations threaten to result in a deluge of scandals which, according to probation officers, may involve every graded and high school in Chicago. Recognition of existing conditions has resulted in a united movement to eradicate immorality in the schools. "The time has come to tackle the question of sexual education," said Chief Probation Officer Henry M. Thurston, today. "Prudery has gone out of fashion. We are in the midst of conditions of which parents have little idea. If they knew the facts there would be widespread horror."

The Chicago ten years' street railway controversy is now squarely up to the voters. Shortly before dawn this morning the city council, after an unprecedented session passed the Chicago City Railway and Chicago Railway (Union Traction) ordinances by a vote of 56 to 18, and the voters must at the spring election express their approval or disapproval of the measures.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 5.—Harry Thaw's hope of acquittal for the killing of Stanford White rests on the testimony of his aged mother and his beautiful wife. Mrs. William Thaw, the mother, and Evelyn Thaw, the former artist model, were in court today, waiting bravely to answer the call of counsel to go upon the witness stand and there before the court and the eager curious world tell the innermost secrets of their lives and family. Nothing is to be spared. The mother and the wife will immolate themselves on the altar of family pride and honor.

Only one member of the Thaw family was in the trial room when Harry Thaw took his seat at the counsel table this morning. He was Josiah Thaw. There was a friendly smile, as the defendant took his place and began to write hurriedly.

Dr. C. H. Wiley, of Pittsburg, one of the Thaw family physicians, was the first witness called. Dr. Wiley testified that he was a specialist on insanity in the Dixmont insane asylum in Pennsylvania. Witness testified to certain erratic actions on the part of Thaw which he had witnessed about two years ago. The doctor among other things said that in his opinion the man who had acted as Thaw had done, after the shooting of Stanford White, was undoubtedly insane. Witness was asked if he thought that Thaw knew at the time of the shooting that his acts were wrongful, and that he knew its nature. "He did not," replied Dr Wiley.

District Attorney Jerome cross-questioned Dr. Wiley at length. He kept up his attacks and drove Dr. Wiley to admit finally that if the facts contained in the hypothetical question were considered he would not be prepared to swear that the defendant was insane. Jerome kept up a bewildering maze of medical questions which kept Dr Wiley in a continual fret.

Recess hour at one o'clock found Dr Wiley still under fire and toying nervously with a gold pocket knife which was attached to his watch chain.

Proposed Constitutional Convention.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 5.—A bill providing for a constitutional convention was introduced in the senate today. It provides that the people shall vote on the question at the next general election, when three delegates to the constitutional convention shall be elected from each senatorial district, the candidates for delegates to be elected at the spring primaries. If a majority be cast for the convention, it shall be held in the hall of the House, on the last Tuesday, December next. The amendments agreed upon by the convention will then be submitted to the voters for adoption or rejection.

The compensation for each member of the convention shall be $1,500 salary, mileage, and $150 for postage. The bill was introduced because in the opinion of Mr. Langfitt, Pennsylvania, has outgrown her constitution and because many amendments to the present instrument has been and will be proposed. The vote by which the bill to quiet the title of real estate and to enable citizens of the United States and corporations chartered under the laws of the commonwealth and authorized to hold real estate therein to hold and convey title to real estate which has formerly been held by corporations not authorized by law to hold real estate in Pennsylvania, was reconsidered and the bill passed finally.

New Jersey Senatorship.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 5.—After an hours attempt had been made to get together a caucus of republican members of the legislature to unite upon a candidate for United States senator to succeed John F. Dryden it was decided at one o'clock this afternoon to postpone the caucus until the arrival of Assemblyman Haines of Middlesex county, who was snowbound. It had been learned that Haines was on his way to Trenton. There were two other absentees and Senator Colby, the "new idea" Essex county senator, had declared he would bolt the nomination of State Treasurer Briggs, if made. This left only forty votes, one short of a majority of the legislature, and necessitated the postponement of the formal deciding caucus. State Treasurer Briggs claims at least twenty-seven votes, which would carry the caucus and give him the nomination. Senator Bradley, of Camden county, is actively opposing Briggs, and his friends claim he will corral enough votes to give him the election. The Bradley forces are playing to stave off the voting for another week in the hope of strengthening their stand. The caucus, if held, will be followed by a joint meeting of the legislature and the formal balloting this afternoon.

Fight with Strikers.

Ashtabula, O., Feb. 5.—Men employed by the Pittsburg Construction Company, fought fiercely with strikers today. Guns, clubs, and knives were brought into play. At the conclusion of the battle one man was found dead on the ground. The strike has been in progress many weeks, and has caused bad feeling. Both sides were armed and many shots were fired. The attacking party, said to be the strikers, was armed with clubs and guns. The noise of the shooting attracted a crowd to the scene and the attackers fled. The dead man is supposed to be George Butler. He is of the attacking party. The police are preparing for a second outbreak.

Buried by Snow Slide.

Denver, Col., Feb. 5.—An immense snow slide swept down Monarch mountain on a little mining camp, 18 miles west of Salids, about 9 o'clock Monday night, burying eighteen or twenty persons. Mrs. Fred Mason and an unknown man are known to be dead. Three business houses were buried under fifty feet of snow. The occupants had no warning. Ten people have been taken out and found to be uninjured.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 5—The stock market was generally strong, with better buying in the general list than has been noted in many days, and the prices of a great many of the stocks traded in made fair advances in the first hour. There was impressive buying, too, in Reading and New York Central.

"Everybody Should Know"

The King of Siam.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The King of Siam is in failing health, although his condition is not really alarming, according to information from the government at Bankok, which has reached the Siamese legation in Washington. In this communication it is stated that late in March the king will set forth his suite, for the water trip from Bangkok to Genoa, where he will spend some time on the Italian Riviera. Early in May he will visit some of the watering places in northern Italy and southern France, and then if he become sufficiently recovered, he will make a brief visit to Paris and possibly Berlin, after which he will make his way overland for the most part to Suez and then sail for his native heath. Rumors that the king and gorgeous suite were scheduled to pass through America on their way to Europe are declared at the legation to be totally without foundation.

Entombed Miners.

Elkins, W. Va., Feb. 5.—Efforts are being made today to repair the motor which operates the fan in mine 25 of the Davis Coal Company, so that men may enter the shaft to rescue the thirty or more miners entombed there, as the result of an explosion Monday. Eight men are known to be dead, all but two of whom are foreigners. When the explosion occurred twenty miners were at work near a seldom used entrance. They were hurled against the sides of a passage-way but all escaped. One of them declares that at least thirty men were in a passage farther in the mine. That number is missing, according to the time-keepers' record. All hope of saving the entombed men has been abandoned. An attempt will be made to bring the bodies to the surface, as soon as the machinery can be put in working order.

Charges of Graft.

Albany, N. Y., Feb 5.—Specific and open charges of colossal grafting in the board of education of New York city are made in a resolution introduced in the Senate today by Senator Guthrie, of Brooklyn. The resolution provides for the investigation by a committee of both Senate and House of the affairs of the board and appropriates $25,000 to pay for it. The resolution declares that a large portion of the money raised by taxation is being put to improper uses by the board of education in the employment of superfluous help, that favored contractors are given school construction work which is unnecessary, thus wasting money; that a huge and well developed system of graft is in existence and is being formed.

Patent Washes for San Jose Scale.

This is the subject of circular No. 2, New Series, recently published by the Virginia State Crop Pest Commission in response to the large number of inquiries in regard to the use of patent preparations now placed on the market as substitutes for the lime sulphur wash.

A number of these preparations have been tested with the result that some of them appear to be more effective than the lime-sulphur preparation, and some of them are not as effective. The cost of these patent preparations is from two to six times the cost of the lime-sulphur wash.

Persons who have not received copy of this publication, can do so by addressing the undersigned.

State Entomologist.

"We pay the dues and the taxes and we demand the right to vote, which you give to our ashmen and even to the lowest and most worthless saloon loafers," said Mrs. E. Cragie, when she led three hundred women from all parts of the State in an attack upon the New York Senate, in behalf of the proposed bill granting suffrage to women in local matters.

Officer Fined.

A called meeting of the board of police commissioners was held in the Mayor's office in the city hall last night to investigate charges preferred by Lieut. Smith against Policeman Stewart Jones. Mayor Paff presided, and all the commissioners except Mr. Graham were present. The charge against Policeman Jones was intoxication, and at a previous hearing before the mayor he confessed and placed himself at the mercy of the board. It was determined to fine the accused $23.85. This is the amount of pay he would have received from the time the charge was urged against him up to the time the board examined the case, and is in accordance with the rule of the board.

The question for an increase of salary for the policemen was brought up, but the commissioners deferred action in the matter until they have a full meeting. It is understood that a special meeting of the board will be held prior to next Tuesday night for the purpose of considering the request of the policemen.

The meeting last night, as has been the custom for some time, was held behind closed doors.

The board adopted the following uniforms for the officers and privates of the force:

Overcoats—Chief of Police—Metropolitan police cloth, turn-over collars, double breasted, two rows of large police buttons on breast, seven in each row; six large police buttons behind, one on each hip, one in centre of and one at bottom of each flap, the fly to extend to the bottom of skirt; three small police buttons on each cuff. The skirts of coats to extend four inches below the knee; four pockets, two behind in fly, one on left breast (inside), one on right breast (inside) with insignia of office on shoulder.

Pantaloons—To be made of Metropolitan Police cloth, two pockets in front and two behind, have plain seam and fob pocket.

The Lieutenants' uniform to be the same as that prescribed for the Chief except insignia of office, and six buttons in each row.

Wedding.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Roland Dishman at East Falls Church on Wednesday, January 30, at 3 p. m., when Miss Susie Augusta Boughton, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Dishman Boughton, of Spokane, Washington, became the bride of Mr. W. J. Littlepage, jr., a popular and prosperous business man of Baltimore, Md. The bridal gown was white crepe de chine, trimmed in real lace over white silk, her only ornament being a diamond brooch, a gift of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. S. Roland Dishman. Little Miss Catharine Dishman was flower girl, gowned in white French lawn and lace, with wide white satin sash, carrying a large bouquet of bride's roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Ainslee, of Baltimore, the best man being Mr. E. T. Hobbs, of the same city. The parlor, reception room and dining room were tastefully decorated in pink carnations and ferns. Owing to the recent death of Mrs. Dishman's mother only the members of the immediate families were present. The bride's going-away-gown was of green broadcloth with hat and gloves to match. The happy couple, together with relatives from Washington, Baltimore and Fredericksburg, left at five o'clock in the palace car Mt. Vernon for Washington, from whence they left at 6:25 p. m. via Seaboard Railway for Palm Beach, Fla., and New Orleans, La. They will be at home to their friends after March 10 th at 1804 west Lexington street, Baltimore.

Presbyterian Brotherhood.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather the meeting in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church last night was well-attended and considerable interest was shown. The meeting had been called for the permanent organization of the Presbyterian Brotherhood and the object was accomplished by the election of the following officers: D. R. Stansbury, president; F. L. Staymaker, first vice president; R. M. Graham, second vice president; O. H. Davis, secretary, and William Campbell, treasurer. The meeting was presided over by Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor, and during the evening an interesting musical programme was rendered. Thirty-five members were enrolled, and each member was appointed a committee of one to secure at least one new application to be presented at the next regular meeting, which will be held Feornary 18. A committee composed of Messrs. R. D. Brumbock, William H. Melchoir and Mr. Gronau was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the organization. Mr. George B. Kennedy was appointed to arrange for a musical programme for the next meeting.

Wintry Weather.

The section of the country has been visited by the severest snow storm of the season, accompanied by low temperature and northwest winds. Snow commenced falling about half-past two o'clock yesterday morning and continued until shortly after eight o'clock this morning. The mercury an hour earlier stood at 20°. About four inches of snow have fallen.

The operation of steam and electric trains has been more or less delayed by the weather, and snow plows have been kept running day and night in order to kept the tracks clear of snow.

The steamer Washington, from Norfolk, arrived about 2½ hours late this morning. Her officers report severe weather in Chesapeake Bay, head winds and blinding snow. The steamer also encountered heavy ice in the river, which extends almost throughout its length.

The heavy snow has brought a number of sleighs on the streets.

Fight on a Train.

There was a fight among negroes on an electric train which left Washington shortly after eight o'clock last night which caused apprehension among the white passengers.

The darkeys are residents of Alexandria county and belong to a class which nearly every week make quiet passengers on the trains uncomfortable. These disorders generally occur on south bound trains on Saturday nights. Certain negroes, who board the train at Arlington Junction, visit Washington and, while on their way home, realizing they are in the majority make their presence known. Last Saturday night a brick was thrown at an electric train by some miscreant. The county authorities in conjunction with the railway officials should take immediate steps towards making examples of such patrons of the road.

Fire Alarms.

The alarm of fire about eleven o'clock last night was caused by the discovery of a fire in an upper room of the rear portion of the residence of Mr. R. H. Windsor, near the northwest corner of Cameron and St. Asaph streets. Before the fire could be extinguished it extended to the bath room adjoining. The damage to the building and furniture caused chiefly by water, amounted to upwards of $200.

The alarm of fire about nine o'clock this morning was caused by smoke seen issuing from a frame dwelling on the west side of Fairfax street, near Gibbon. The department responded but their services were not needed.

Death of Mr. Fairfax.

Mr. Thomas Fairfax died at his home in Washington yesterday evening and his remains will be brought to this city tomorrow evening for interment. The funeral will take place from St. Paul's Church at 2:15 o'clock. Mr Fairfax was the youngest son of the late Dr. Orlando Fairfax, of Alexandria, and had many friends and relatives here. At the breaking out of the civil war Mr. Fairfax, then a mere youth, moved with his father to Richmond and made that city his home for a number of years. He subsequently removed to Washington where for some time he had held a responsible position in the U. S. Treasury Department. He was taken ill yesterday evening and died in a short time from heart trouble.

Death of Former Resident.

William Henry Harrison Dunham, the oldest citizen of Hokah, Minnesota, died on the 20th ultimo. The deceased was in his 90th year. Mr. Dunham was born at Northfield, Vt., on January 8, 1818, and on December 25, 1884, he was united in marriage to Dorothy Reid Smith, of Brookfield, Vt., who is yet living at the age of 81 years. The family at one time lived on Duke street in this city, and they made many acquaintances in Alexandria. Mr. Dunham was at that time a railroad official. Besides his wife and companion of 62 years, a son, A. S. Dunham, of Baltimore; and daughter, Mrs. C. J. Thompson, of Minneapolis, survive him.

Held Up and Robbed.

A resident of the southeastern section of the city while walking on north Lee street at an early hour last Sunday morning was stopped by four men, one of whom placed a pistol in his face and commanded him to deliver up his money. The man had $7.50 in one of his pockets, which he handed over, after which his assailants started away. The victim of the hold-up begged the men to return a part of the money, he declaring it was all he possessed, and the robbers returned 50 cents of their plunder. It is said that the man recognized one of the footpads.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Henry Padgett, whose death occurred on Saturday last, took place from the residence of his son, Joseph Padgett, 1024 Queen street, this afternoon, Rev. J. A. Jeffers, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated. The interment will be in the Methodist Protestant Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. James Deane, W. F. Webster, John Gilroy, Clarence Howard, French Cleveland and John Pugh, all of whom had acquired the trade of bricklaying under the deceased.

Preparing for the Celebration.

The executive committee of the Washington's Birthday Association is actively engaged in arranging details for the various events which are to mark the celebration of the anniversary of Gen. Washington's birth. The committee is meeting with much success, and from present indications the day will be made interesting throughout. A meeting of the association will be held on Friday night next.

Shah Left $60,000,000 in Jewels.

An inventory of the jewelry left by the late Shah of Persia shows that he had $60 000,000 worth. In the collection are many loose precious stones—sapphires, emeralds, rubies, turquoises and diamonds. The ancient crown of the Persian monarchs is mounted with a ruby as large as a hen's egg. A belt worn on state occasions is studded with diamonds weighing at least 18 pounds. One sword studded with diamonds is valued at $1,600,000. A silver vase contains 100 emeralds. It is so large that the names of all the dead Persian monarchs have been engraved on it. It is said to have fallen from the sky in Mohammed's time and is considered a sure protection against accidents for its possessor.

States' Case Postponed.

The time for the hearing on the demurrer in the case of Virginia vs. West Virginia, involving the debt of the former State was yesterday changed from March 4 to March 11, to accommodate John G. Carlisle, who will appear for West Virginia. Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, has declined to act as counsel for the State of West Virginia in the case in which Virginia seeks recovery of a portion of the Old Dominion debt, prior to the separation. The attorney general of West Virginia, who was in Washington in connection with the case, announced that former Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle has been retained in his stead.

Sand Cure for Dispepsia.

A number of persons in Westchester, Pa., who are sufferers from stomach troubles are trying the sand cure. The sand, so a dispatch tells us, comes from Mississippi in bags of two quarts each. It is taken in doses of a teaspoonful, and as often as the patient feels trouble coming.

"When any animal has an attack of stomach trouble," argues one of the believers in the cure, "it goes at once to the ground for some clay or sand, and why should not a man?"

Why not, indeed? There is no reason under the sun for man going elsewhere than to the ground for a cure when he has stomach trouble, unless it be that when man has stomach trouble he is more unreasonable than at any other time.

The sand cure will appeal strongly to the great majority of people whose stomachs are all right, and in time these people, when their stomachs go wrong, may, by the exercise of will power, convince themselves that duty to themselves and to their families, to say nothing of friends and country, demands that they shall go to the ground for a cure.—[Chicago Inter-Ocean.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Private Flats on Steamers.

The Atlantic Transport Line, whose steamers ply between New York and London, announces that its vessels will soon be installed with complete private apartments similar to those in which thousands of people in all our great cities now live. These will differ from the prevailing steamer suite in that each will have a private hall, bedrooms, parlor, library, bath, etc. Each flat will be thirty feet in length and have a width of fifteen feet, and the windows will look out on the deck. The temporary tenant's name will be on the front door, and a bell will announce callers. Each apartment will have an electric heater, on which light meals, or the baby's milk, can be prepared, after mother has finished curling her hair. Complete meals, however, will be served to order in each flat, one of the rooms being converted into a dining room.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Women Card Parties.

The society women of Montgomery, Ala., are flooding the legislature with protests against an anti-gambling bill which has been favorably reported in the House. The bill, probably the most drastic ever introduced in any legislature, aims directly at the card parties which are a feature of social life. The bill mentions bridge, euchre and other games, and makes it a jail offense, without alternative of fine, for any woman to allow these games to be played in her home for prizes of value. Probably 3,000 protests against the bill have been received, and some of them were peppery. One of the protestants said that she was ashamed to know that she lived in the same State with such a "hayseed." Despite protests, it is believed the bill will pass.

The Alaska Packers Association furnish the government hundreds of thousands of cases of Salmon a year. Out of 240,000 cans examined by the goverment at Camp Thomas only four defective cans were found. This firm packs the Argo Red Salmon.

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

"WHY do I take Cardui"? writes Mrs. Jelemma Mullins of Odessa, W. Va. "Because, after suffering for several years with female trouble, and trying different doctors and medicines without obtaining relief, I at last found, in Wine of Cardui, a golden medicine for all my ills, and can recommend it above all others for female complaints."

Cardui furnishes safe relief for backache, headache, periodical pains, irregular, painful or unhealthy catamenial flow, and all ailments from which sick women suffer. A perfect tonic for delicate women. A pure vegetable medicine for girls and women who are subject to the complaints peculiar to their sex. Has benefited over a million who used to suffer as you do.
